June 2010

Pictured above: These are 3 of the 6 baptisms that took place at Nagole on Saturday, April 3, 2010, the day before Easter Sunday. Pictured here are C. H. Aruna, M. David Raju and M. Devamma. Also baptized that day were: Mrs. T. Radhika, Mrs. M. Rajaini and Mr. M. Prakash. Brother Paul Prajeev who administered the baptisms writes: "On Good Friday at 11:00 a.m. 37 people gathered and I preached about the 7 sayings our Lord spoke on the cross. We concluded the service around 3:00 p.m. and after that cool drinks and fruits were served to the congregation. I reminded them of the baptisms to take place on the next day, Saturday, 3rd. After the service on Sunday we had a fellowship meal together."

Bro. Paul Prajeev and his wife continue to live and work in the Nagole area and they have been a very stabilizing influence for the church there after it suffered through some turbulent times. We appreciate the work they are doing at Nagole. Bro. Paul also does translation work for Suvatha Sandesamulu (Telugu Gospel Tidings) as well as helping conduct the Kukatpally Preacher Training each fall. He is a tireless worker and an humble, dedicated man. Thanks for your continued support for the work in India.
